

House Rules

Some rules in the home are written down. Rules like...

or

Some rules we are just expected to follow. Rules like...

- don't put rubbish in the washing machine
- don't eat mouldy food
- don't draw on the table

These are called un-written rules and are based on what is known as common sense.

Complete the table with some of the written rules where you live and some of the un-written ones.
