The animal that influenced my character is the _____.

I chose this animal because _____

I have used the colour _____ for the _____.

I chose this colour because _____

The part of the animal that most influenced my design was the _____

I chose this part because _____

Now write a few sentences of your own, explaining why you chose to design it the way you did. Did you use human clothing or accessories? Try to explain why?

See if you can write one of your sentences in the passive voice. Your teacher will help you with this.
